

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

SATURDAY EVE., APRIL 19, 1884.

ROSSER & McCARTHY

Publishers and Proprietors, To Whom Address All Communications

This weather is the kind of thing That makes us think it's real spring.
And judging by the looks to-day,
The fickle lass has come to stay.

There are over two hundred consumers of gas in Maysville.

The "special" car with one of the best drivers on the line, will be out to-morrow again.

MAYSVILLE'S good friend—the pig—is in fine condition and ready for a lively campaign.

Mr. THOMAS TYLER has sold the Germantown stage line to Mr. Sam. Pollitt, of Tollesboro.

The pork-house building at the corner of Second and Limestone streets, is undergoing repair.

A TEAM of white horses belonging to Parker & Hopper were sold this week to Jefferson & Clary, of Mayslick.

SELLERS Brothers' circus will pitch tents on Pearce's lot, in the First Ward, and not in Chester as some persons suppose.

The name of the new boat to ply between this city and Augusta is the "Tonawanda." She will be ready for business next week.

Isn't it about time that Limestone bridge is receiving some attention? The break in the street on the west side ought at least to be filled up.

DOCTORS PICKETT & CARMELL, United States Examiners, have taken possession of their new quarters in White & Martin's building, adjoining the BULLETIN office.

ONE hundred and fifty-seven dollars stolen recently by a boy from a man living near Manchester was restored to the owner a few days ago by officers W. B. Dawson and Henry Hasen.

GRIM visaged war has smoothed his wrinkled front and the lion and the lamb are lying down together, or in other words it is all quiet to-day along the line between Maysville and Catlettsburg.

TICKET number 86,800, which drew $15,000 in the Louisiana lottery, was bought by Mr. W. T. Rigg, of Mt. Olivet, and was disposed of before the drawing took place to Mr. Elbert Montgomery for the sum of $1.

ONLY three indictments were found by the grand jury at the present term of the Circuit Court; two for sabbath breaking and one for carrying a concealed deadly weapons. Can any county in Kentucky show a better record?

The practice of allowing boys to spend their evenings in the streets is one of the most ruinous, dangerous and mischievous things possible. Nothing so speedily and surely marks their course downward. They acquire under, cover of night, an unhealthy state of mind, vulgar and profane language, obscene practices, criminal sentiments, and a lawless, riotous bearing. Indeed, it is in the streets after night-fall that boys acquire the education and the capacity for becoming rowdy, dissolute men.

The grand jury having disposed of all the business brought before that body adjourned its session yesterday and was discharged. The following report was made:

To the Honorable Judge of the Mason Circuit Court: We, the grand jury for the April term of court, 1884, having completed the first placed in us, beg leave to make the following report: We have found three indictments, visited the jail, found it clean and in order in every respect, and do say to the citizens of the county that they may flatter themselves with the belief that they have a good officer in the way of a jailer, and are pleased to say we have every reason to believe that the morals of the county are much better than they have been, and best in localities where intoxicating drinks are not sold, that indictments are less and will grow less as sobriety increases and do hope that all good citizens will give a helping hand to further its progress. Thanking the officers of the court for the courtesy extended to us, SAMUEL FORMAN, Foreman.

The Churches.

Services will be held as usual at St.
Patrick's Church to-morrow.

Rev. R. B. Garrett will preach in the Baptist Church to-morrow morning and evening at the usual hours.

The usual services at the Southern Methodist Church, to-morrow, by the pastor, at 11 a. m. At night Rev. Mr.
Evans will preach for Dr. Henderson.
All are invited.

Rev. S. B. Alderson preaches at the Third Street Presbyterian church tomorrow morning and evening. Morning subject, "Christ our priest." Evening, "The open door."

Services in the Church of the Nativity (Episcopal) on Sunday as follows: 11 a. m., service and sermon; 3 p. m., baptizing; 7:15 p. m., service and sermon, showing why all persons who "profess and call themselves Christians" should be confirmed."

Fine Vehicle.

Messrs. Parker & Hopper have just received a handsome new landau from the establishment of Joseph Cunningham, at St. Louis, which will no doubt be very popular with the ladies this summer. It painted black with carmine striping, and is lined with blue cloth and morocco, while the hubs and other mountings are of silver. It is provided with cut glass lamps with plated stems and many other conveniences and ornaments. It is one of the handsomest vehicles ever brought to the city and cost a great deal of money.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Ed. Nesbitt, of Owingsville, is in the city.

Mr. Alex. Case, postmaster at Augusta, has resigned his position.

Mr. J. W. Hancock of East Maysville, who is now in his 55th year, is very ill.

Mrs. Dr. Ishmael after a pleasant visit to friends in the city, returned to her home yesterday.

Mrs. L. A. Flanagan, who died recently at Vanceburg, was a twin sister of Dr. W. H. McGranaghan, formerly of this city.

Snake Stories.

Prof. L. R. Smith, of Missouri, caught a rattlesnake while visiting in Texas this winter. He found it up an apple tree and switched it off the limb with his riding whip. On the back of the snake is a well-defined tracing of the outlines of a woman's face.

Mr. E. F. Herdman, Government Geologist, engaged on a survey in Western Australia, saw a wounded snake which had been attacked by black ants bite itself twice in the side, from the effects of which it soon died. He believes it to have been a clear case of deliberate suicide in order to escape the pain and suffering it was compelled to bear.

A Georgia man was fishing near a rock under which was a snake's den, the other day, when the reptile came gliding up from a foraging expedition and was disappearing in a hole under the rock, when, with a dexterous movement the man seized him by the tail and threw him twenty feet away. The snake hardly knew what had happened and again essayed to enter his domicile in the same manner. Again he was treated just as before. Never despairing, for a third time the wily serpent approached the rock. This time he came deliberately, as if contemplating the situation. Arriving at the mouth of the hole, he deliberately coiled himself up and put out his long tongue, as if to take in the full situation. For a while he remained in this defensive position, when he carefully began to uncoil, at the same time disappearing tail foremost into the den, to the admiration of the man who had been amusing himself at his expense.

A little child becoming wearied over the quarrelling of two younger children over a glass of milk, exclaimed: "What's the use in fighting forever over that milk?
There's a whole cowful out in the barn."

Woman's Knowledge of Politics.

Burlington Hawkeye.
"No, Laura, no. They do not open the campaign with a can-opener. They do it with a corkscrew." How little alas, do women know about politics.

While an Indiana editor was home sick with typhoid fever and his wife and daughter were suffering at the same time with diphtheria and scarlatina, the office boy clipped and published as a leader the following medical note: "Typhoid fever, diphtheria and scarlatina are the results of human ignorance, stupidity, laziness and filth, rather than visitations of God."

To the Public.

The Springfield Insurance Company, represented by Mr. G. S. Judd, is an old reliable company, and insures against cyclones and tornadoes at very reasonable rates. Some of the best farmers are taking out policies in this company.

It is no wonder that children refuse to take the nauseous remedies generally administered as worm medicine. It is a cruel, heathen punishment to give it to them when Wills' World Worm Candy can be had at the nearest drug store.
They never refuse to take that as it resembles the ordinary stick candy, and is free from taste of medicine.

Boots, Shoes and Slippers.

C. B. Clift & Co. have the largest and best selected stock of boots, shoes and slippers for the spring of 1884, ever shown in Maysville and at prices to suit people. We only ask your inspection to convince you that we can make it to your interest to trade with us.

Ugly Gaps

in that row which of all others should be kept in thorough repair, a row of teeth, are sure to occur and no less sure to occur and no less sure to hopelessly disfigure the face if disregard of the teeth's cleanliness is persistent. But if the error is corrected in time with the aid of Socodont, America's leading tooth beautifier and invigorant, the tenants of the mouth long retain their strength and whiteness unimpaired. A word to the wise is sufficient.

IN MEMORIAM.

"Death loves a shining mark," and when his arrow was shot at Miss Julia Everett, a few days ago, his aim hit the mark. From the depths of a sad heart I pen these lines. Cut down to life's early morn by the hand of the cruel archer and gone to the grave so full of hope and promise. "We shall see her face never more." Until we meet in the land of soul. Her death has left a vacancy in the heart and home of her many, many friends, that old time can never fill. May the dear mother and loved ones left behind remember that Julia is "not dead, but sleeping," and by and by, "Those that sleep in Jesus God will bring with him."
On the morning of that sad day I saw Miss Julia with some lady friends, so bright and happy, and a smile for every one, had I known then this was our last greeting until we met about the "White Throne," I should have bade her "Farewell," and pointed the eye of faith to the "Jeweled city of God." I was ignorant of the fact that I was gazing on her bright face for the last time. I never knew any young lady who had so few enemies. May the cold soil lie softly on your noble form. I was so glad loving hands buried her beneath a bed of roses.
